

Active Managerial Control: Implementation & Insights

Olivia Alexander-Leeder, REHS, MS

Mia Gzebb, REHS

Objectives

What are AMC programs?

Northern Nevada Public Health's journey to AMC

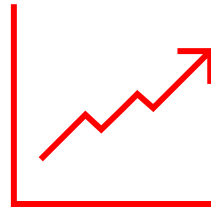

AMC program benefits for health departments and their jurisdictions

Why institute an AMC program?

Mounting workloads and competing priorities

PUBLIC HEALTH AGENCIES

Increased Workload

Understaffed

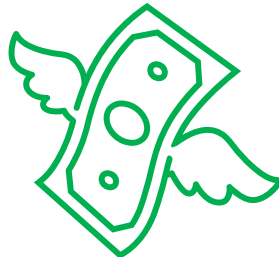

Underfunded

RETAIL FOOD ESTABLISHMENTS

Increased Workload

Understaffed

Underfunded

What is Active Management Control?

AMC Course

- Learn about AMC
- Share challenges they are facing
- Learn how to develop AMC Policies

• The purposeful incorporation of

AMC Toolbox

- Visual & written food safety resources
- Free for operators, available online
- Current, relevant food safety information

Ensuring long-term compliance with proactive enforcement

Problem

Not enough resources to accomplish our compliance and enforcement policy

Goals

Efficacy

Efficiency

Actions

Increase buy-in from industry professionals

Ensure long-term food safety practices

Address multiple establishments simultaneously

Empower operators to self-develop FSMS

The NEHA-FDA Retail Food Flexible Funding Model Grant

Year 1: Information gathering

- Learning from other jurisdictions
- Matching community needs
- Mapping the program
- Creation of 3 food safety advertising videos

3 Years
$300,000 ($100K
per year)
Feb. 2022 – Dec.
2024

Year 2: Program creation

- AMC Class
- AMC Toolbox
- Creation 12 food safety videos

Year 3: Community outreach

- Public workshops
- Social media
- News media
- Creation of final 3 food safety videos

What do AMC programs do for environmental health departments?

Decrease the number of reinspections

Decrease the number of critical violations observed during inspections

Generate long-term consistency and compliance

Protect public health

What do AMC programs do for operators?

Create a culture of food safety through procedures, training, and monitoring

Increase efficiency and success in their establishment

Protect public health

Motivated by our community

Reduces costs for small, local business owners

Reduces food waste

Improve equitable access to information

Protects public health

NORTHERN NEVADA
Public Health+

Thank you!