AGENDA ITEM # 6

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Leo Robert LeGoy has served Washoe County as a member of the Washoe County Registrar of Voters' state-mandated Accuracy Certification Board for 18 elections; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy, as he is informally known, graduated from Reno High School; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy graduated from the University of Nevada and remains an avid supporter of the Wolf Pack; and

WHEREAS Bob Legoy married Shirley McDonough on February 18, 1950, in Tonopah; and

WHEREAS Bob and Shirley LeGoy have three sons: Leo Robert, James Michael, and Phillip Richard; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy has participated in many volunteer activities in the Truckee Meadows, most recently in Honor Flight Nevada, which transports senior veterans to Washington, D.C. to visit their memorials; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy, as a member of the Accuracy Certification Board, whose visits to polling places during early voting and on election day were warmly received by election officials; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy always visited a polling place in Incline Village during early voting and then took Shirley out to lunch at Lake Tahoe, a trip other members of the board were not invited to make; and

WHEREAS Bob LeGoy served as an Accuracy Certification Board Member with honor, integrity and diligence and will be sorely missed upon his retirement from this Board;

THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT Leo Robert LeGoy be named the Honorary Registrar of Voters for Washoe County for the 17th day of January, 2017.
