

Robert Z. Hawkins Amphitheater at Bartley Ranch 2008 Summer Concert Series

Jackie Green

Susan Tedeschi

The Rippingtons

Enjoy music under the stars at the Robert Z. Hawkins Amphitheater inside Bartley Ranch Regional Park. This year's series brings decades of American music and world-class entertainers to the stage of one of the area's most popular, unique and enchanting outdoor theaters.

JUNE 5

Jackie Greene with the Mother Hips

$29.50/$20

Jackie Greene clearly has been influenced by some of the greatest names in rock, folk and blues. Music lovers around the world have come to love his maverick style. Sharing the stage with Greene, the Mother Hips will liven the night with California rock, psychedelia and amazing musicianship.

JUNE 8

The Rippingtons

$34.50/$24.50

The Rippingtons have been defining and re-defining smooth jazz for more than 20 years. Jazz Magazine named the band's 1990 release, "Moonlighting," the No. 1 Most Influential Contemporary Jazz Album of All Time. Always evolving and enormously popular; the Rippingtons enjoy a strong fan base.

JUNE 14

Melissa Manchester

$34.50/$24.50

Manchester, who began her singing career at age 15, has racked up hits such as "Whenever I Call You Friend," a duet with Kenny Loggins; "You Should Hear How She Talks About You," a 1982 Grammy-winner; and the immortal "Midnight Blue."

JUNE 27

Susan Tedeschi

$44.50/$29.50

A fiery guitarist and deeply expressive singer, Susan Tedeschi has won a large and loyal audience for her ability to craft elements of classic blues, rock, R&B, folk and gospel into a distinctly individual style.

Raul Malo

JULY 26

Raul Malo

$34.50/$24.50

After playing with the Mavericks and Los Super Seven, Raul Malo launched an impressive solo career, drawing fans with his blend of country blues and Latin roots music. According to Billboard Magazine, "the purity, clarity and strength of his voice is simply unmatched by any other singer out there today."

JULY 27

Calexico

$44.50/$29.50

Calexico — a band of multi-national talents fused by Joey Burns and John Convertino — cites such diverse influences as Portuguese fado, '50s jazz, gypsy music, '60s surf, and Spaghetti Westerns. The band continues to weave its multicultural sound with new instruments and vocal harmonies.

Neko Case

AUG. 2

David Bromberg with Angel Band

$34.50/$24.50

Blues-folk singer David Bromberg dazzles at his live shows. As the New York Times noted, "He is electrifying." Bromberg will be joined by the folksy voices of Angel Band, a trio of acoustic artists that include Kathleen Weber, Jen Schonwald, and Bromberg's wife, Nancy Josephson.

AUG. 24

Phoebe Snow

$44.50/$29.50

Since the release of her debut album in 1974, Phoebe Snow has remained one of the most distinctive voices in popular music. She has mastered pop, jazz, rock, blues and funk with a style that is all her own. Expect an emotionally powerful performance from this vibrant and highly acclaimed singer-songwriter.

R. Carlos Nakai

AUG. 27

Neko Case

$44.50/$29.50

Neko Case entrances fans with her mix of torch songs and alternative country. Her rhythmic, commanding and sometimes haunting melodies recall Patsy Cline one moment and Judy Garland the next. In the words of one fan, her voice leaves you with a sense of "longing and loneliness and heartache and pure shimmering beauty."

SEPT. 27

R. Carlos Nakai

$34.50/$24.50

Of Navajo-Ute heritage, R. Carlos Nakai is the world's premier performer of the Native American flute. Originally trained in classical trumpet and music theory, Nakai has applied that knowledge to the traditional cedar wood flute. He has released dozens of albums and thrilled audiences with his exciting, cross-cultural arrangements.
